

Are you Prokura's new Business Analyst?

- Are you currently finishing your Bachelors-degree/in the beginning of your Masters-degree and are looking to kick-start your career with an exciting job characterized by a high degree of autonomy and responsibility, unmatched by any other consultancy in Denmark?
- Are you ready to test your exceptionally high academic grades and ambitions in real life of a consultant, with a possibility to create significant bottom-line results for leading private and public companies across a myriad of industries?

If positive, you have a unique possibility to apply for a part-time position as Business Analyst in Copenhagen, Denmark and become a part of our dynamic organization

Who you are

- Interested in Procurement/Supply Chain, preferably with an academic track-record within this field
- A highly-qualified person currently studying Bachelors-degree/ or about to start your Masters-degree and have received above average grades
- An analytically strong number-cruncher profile with solid problem-solving skills
- Independent, action-oriented and with a strong personal drive
- Flexible and willing to adapt to a changing environment characteristic
- Advanced user of Excel and PowerPoint
- Fluent in English or at least one Nordic language – both written and oral

What will you be doing

- An exciting and versatile job with a high degree of independency and ability to influence your job assignments
- A part-time student job, with the possibility to experience the work of a consultant
- A young and dynamic organization, where we work as a team and provide you with opportunities to develop your skills and capabilities through constant training, feedback, and coaching

The position is a part-time position. Business travel should be expected, since you partially will be working at our client's site. Please specify in your application which office you would like to apply for. We will interview relevant candidates on an ongoing basis.
